SO ORDERED. U.S. Magistrate Judge

Re: Victor Marshall v. Downstate Obstetricians and Gynecologist, P.C. et al
Case No. 07 CIV. 4708
(ENV)(CLP)

Dear Judge Pollak:

We represent the Plaintiff in the above-captioned action. This is a joint request by counsel for the Parties to extend discovery by about one month to December 5, 2008.

The parties have made good progress with discovery, but due to trial commitments of Plaintiff's counsel and her involvement in the Presidential campaign of Senator Obama (including attending meetings in Chicago from October 31 through November 4th, and returning November 5th), the unavailability of Defendants' counsel for most of the month of October due to overseas business and leisure travel, we have been unable to schedule depositions. The first mutually-available dates are in November and we are confident that we will be able to conclude discovery by December 5th. For this reason, the Parties jointly request the additional time to complete discovery and to adjourn the court conference scheduled for November 7th. This is the first time either party requests an extension of discovery.

Very truly yours,
